4 STATEMENT OF FACTS

5 This complaint is based on the personal observations, investigation, and 6 information furnished to Immigration and Customs Enforcement Special Agent Christina
7 Johnson.

8 On August 19, 2008, at approximately 0900 hours, Samuel CORONADO entered 9 the United States from the Republic of Mexico at the Calexico, CA, West Port of Entry.
10 CORONADO was the driver of a white 2000 Chevy Silverado bearing license plate
11 (CA/US) 5R10798.

12 Primary Customs and Border Protection Officer (CBPO) Equihua received a 13 negative Customs Declaration from CORONADO. CBPO Equihua inquired about 14 CORONADO's destination. CORONADO stated he was going to work in the Imperial 15 Valley. CBPO Equihua inquired about the ownership of the vehicle and CORONADO 16 stated it was his. CBPO Equihua proceeded to inspect the vehicle and noticed that 17 CORONADO appeared to be nervous, avoiding eye contact and being somewhat 18 talkative. CBPO Equihua decided to refer CORONADO to the secondary lot for further 19 inspection.

20 In secondary, CBPO Bejarano received a negative Customs Declaration from 21 CORONADO. CBPO Bejarano noticed that CORONADO's hand was shaking as he 22 presented his driver's license. CBPO Bejarano requested that CORONADO step out of 23 the vehicle. CBPO Bejarano inspected the bed of the truck and noticed a discrepancy 24 in spacing from the top of the floor bed and the bottom. CBPO Bejarano requested 25 Canine Enforcement Officer (CEO) Parrish utilized his Narcotics Detector Dog (NDD) to 26 screen the vehicle. The NDD alerted to the bed of the truck driven by CORONADO.
27 CEO Parrish advised CBPO Bejarano of the alert. CBPO Bejarano opened the 28 compartment and discovered packages.
29

1 A thorough physical search of the vehicle revealed 42 packages concealed in 2 the non-factory compartment in the bed of the truck. A presumptive field test of one of 3 the packages indicated the contents of these packages to be marijuana. The total 4 weight of the packages was approximately 54.96 kilograms (120.91 lbs).

5 CORONADO was notified of his arrest and advised of his Miranda Rights, which 6 he acknowledged and waived. CORONADO admitted knowledge of the marijuana and 7 stated he was to be paid $1500.00 for the smuggling venture. CORONADO was 8 processed and transported to Imperial County Jail.
